  - a. GAP Guidance indicators and other draft 2022 GAP Guidance tribal consultation materials are available on EPA's Indian Environmental General Assistance Program \(GAP\).
  - b. EPA's tribal consultation notification and plan are available on EPA's Tribal Consultation Opportunities Tracking System (TCOTS) DRAFT 2022 GAP Guidance website, which includes specific questions on the GAP Guidance indicators that the EPA may use to prompt discussion.
6. PERC-med Overview (Diana Simmes, UC Davis) (01:40 – 02:00)

PERC-med aims to provide healthcare providers with resources and education to help them prevent, recognize and treat pesticide-related illnesses. PERC-med is interested in working with providers (clinicians, community health workers etc.) who are serving tribal communities. Below are a few PERC-med materials that can be found on their website.

- a. Acute Pesticide Poisoning Children
- b. Paraquat Poisoning

In addition, PERC-med's partners at the National Pesticide Information Center (NPIC) have public facing materials such as this infographic about disinfectant wipes.
